

Jabra

COMFORTABLE, CLEAR AND EASY TO USE.

REASONS TO CHOOSE THE JABRA C500:

- Boom microphone for optimal voice pick-up
- Answer/end button and mute switch on boom
- Lightweight, discreet and comfortable

The Jabra C500 is a stylish, lightweight, behind-the-ear headset with built-in miniature microphone boom for optimal voice pick-up. Listening quality is optimized by the high-sensitivity miniature speaker and Jabra MiniGel™, which channels sound into your ear.

Every conversation becomes an enjoyable experience with the contoured earpiece that fits discreetly behind either ear for a comfortable and secure fit.

Answering and ending calls is convenient too, with the answer/end button located right at your fingertips on the microphone boom.* Also includes the handy mute switch on the boom that is great if you're on conference calls.
